MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). Detention of the defendant pending trial in this case is necessary because there is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.

The evidence against the defendant meets the probable cause standard. The defendant has recently been homeless and she has a history of substance abuse. Additionally, her personal information has not been verified. Further, the defendant has a lengthy criminal history, albeit most for misdemeanor offenses. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted. The defendant is ordered detained pending trial. The defense may move to reopen the detention hearing at a later date if the defendant is able to present a suitable release plan and if the defendant's personal information is verified. The proposed release plan should be included in any motion to reopen the detention hearing to allow the Court sufficient information to decide whether to reopen the hearing.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 20th day of March, 2018.

Jason B. Libby
United States Magistrate Judge
